Custom Receptions

You are welcome to create your own package using the following a la carte hors d'oeuvre lists and bar lists. We are happy to put a custom package together for you that fits within your budget and your taste.

A few tips for choosing a la carte:

- ❖ FOOD: Consider a combination of passed hors d'oeuvre and stations. Stations give guests the opportunity to ground themselves when they walk into a room and make them more comfortable especially if they are the first ones there. A variety of 5 hors d'oeuvre is suggested. This is the best way to circulate around the room and give guests an actual taste of each item. Too many options get lost in the mix. Also, consider what items you are choosing, shrimp cocktail and smoked salmon canapés are much more formal than cheesesteak eggrolls and petit quiche. The kind of food you choose can dictate how formal or relaxed you want your party to be.
- ❖ BAR: The bar is the most important party of a cocktail party! Make sure you are offering a variety of cocktails that guests will enjoy.
- ❖ LENGTH: Most of our packages are designed for 2 hours as it is the suggested length for a cocktail party. If it is too long, guests feel unsettled and may be looking for dinner. Additionally more than 2 hours of standing can wear on guests with disabilities, injuries or sometimes just very high heels! These packages are not intended to be a substitute for a full dinner. Keeping a cocktail party to a maximum of two to three hours ensures that it will end on a good note!
- ❖ BAR TENDERS: Vickers recommends 1 bar tender per 50 guests if it is a full bar. 1 bar tender for 75 guests if it is wine and beer. Consider adding a bar tender so that your guests get served quickly.
- ❖ ENTERTAINMENT: Consider a jazz duet or some lively entertainment to encourage background sound. Vickers Plantation ball room does have it's own music system and we typically play classic jazz tunes from famous crooners like Dean Martin and Frank Sinatra.
